

Are proud to announce the following event

The Continuing Struggle for Inclusive Education and Community Living

7th - 10th November 2004
Ribby Hall, Wrea Green,
nr Blackpool, Lancashire

This is an event where people can learn, share, contribute, question, laugh, gather information, understand, and try out new ways to promote inclusive education and community living.

An opportunity to join with others who are committed to working for meaningful inclusion, where there is a shift in power towards people who use services.

This event is for:

- People who use services
- Family members
- People who provide services e.g. Teachers, Psychologists, Support staff, Carers
- People working in the voluntary sector
- Managers of services, Administrators

For many years people around the country have been actively involved in increasing social inclusion and encouraging leadership which enables those who are excluded from our communities to engage with their families, friends and allies to make informed decisions about how they intend to live their own lives.

This Inclusion event is about building new alliances as well as building on long established relationships, creating a more powerful force to bring about real differences and meaningful inclusion to the lives of those individuals excluded from our schools, colleges, universities and communities.

Workshops include:

- Direct Payments “In Control”
- The Right to Communication: Facilitated Communication and Training
- Making Inclusion happen in the classroom
- A Person Centred Attitude
- Politics of Inclusion
- Self-Leadership
- Changing Services to Inclusive Services

Keynote presentations will include:

- A group of young people who are using Facilitated Communication (FCT) from Syracuse, New York
- Speakers from the UK, USA, Canada and Australia including
  - Richard Rieser
  - Lynne Elwell
  - John O' Brien
  - Susannah Joyce
  - Karen Flood
  - Sophia Erskine
  - Joe Whittaker
  - Simon Duffy.
  - Micheline Mason
- Movable Feast drama group
- The "Marsha Forrest" and "Herb Lovett" presentations

Martha Forrest Herb Lovett
